

Antonio Nucci (Pitigliano, 1955).

Degree in Political Science. He began his professional career in 1974 at Istituto Bancario di Torino. After having been the manager of several branches across Central and Southern Italy, he became manager of the South West area, then manager of the Campania area (following the foundation of Sanpaolo Banco di Napoli) and finally manager of the Naples region. From 2004 to 2009, he was the General Manager of Banco di Napoli. Within the Banca dei Territori division, he was Area Manager of Campania, Basilicata, Calabria and Puglia; then Area Manager of Lazio, Sardegna and Sicilia; and finally of Piemonte, Valle d'Aosta and Liguria.

He has been a Board member in a number of the Intesa Sanpaolo Group's companies and was Chairman of the ABI Piemonte Regional Commission and Vice Chairman of the ABI Lazio Regional Commission. He held positions in many organizations including the Chamber of Commerce of Naples and the Chamber of Commerce of Rome, where he was a member of the Consulta delle Imprese, too. From 2007 to 2010, he also lectured at the Seconda Università degli Studi in Naples.

He has had extensive experience in the international arena working both in Germany and Austria, first as General Manager of the Munich branch (1993), and then as Area Manager of Germany in Frankfurt for Sanpaolo IMI. In these positions he focused mainly on the Large Corporate and Finance sectors. From 1999 he was General Manager and Chairman Vorstand in Sanpaolo Bank Austria – Vienna, where he managed the process of transforming this commercial bank into a private bank.

Head of the Insurance Division from November 2014 to June 2015.